

STARTING TODAY: JANE CLARKE'S EAT FOR VITALITY

SEE PAGE 34

Daily IRISH Mail

TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2007

www.dailymail.ie

50c

THIS PAPER COSTS JUST 50c

FREE DVD PILATES WORKOUT

Pick up another FREE life-enhancing disc every day for the next two weeks

DETAILS: PAGES 22-23

COLLECT FROM EASON OR DUNNES STORES (GROCERY) OR WE CAN POST THEM ALL TO YOU

Pilgrim's body found in remote undergrowth

MYSTERY OF WINNIE'S LAST HOURS

Skinny-dipper Keira
SEE PAGE 3

MYSTERY last night continued to surround the final hours of Winnie Brady, who vanished while on a pilgrimage to Medjugorje.

Despite the discovery of her body in remote undergrowth on Sunday, the circumstances in which the Dublin grandmother disappeared are no clearer than they were four months ago when she first went missing. Mrs Brady, 59, was on her third visit to the town on September 6 when she vanished without explanation.

By Kate Chambré

Despite extensive searches involving family members and police with tracker dogs, no trace of her was found until yesterday when a hunter found her remains.

The site is some three kilometres from the guesthouse where Mrs

Brady was staying. As her husband Stephen flies out to Bosnia this morning to formally identify the remains, sources close to the investigation have told the Irish Daily Mail that her death is believed to have been brought about by natural causes.

But the following questions remain unanswered:

- If she was, according to her husband, feeling 'grand', why did she

Turn to Page 6